Subject: Diamond Offshore Drilling, Inc. – Contract Adjustment
Option Symbol: 04/23/2021 – DOFSQ remains DOFSQ
04/26/2021 – DOFSQ becomes DOFQ1
Date: 04/23/2021

On April 8, 2021, U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of Texas Houston Division confirmed the Second Amended Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Reorganization of Diamond Offshore Drilling, Inc. and its Debtor Affiliates (“Plan”). The Plan became effective on April 23, 2021, and all existing DOFSQ shares were cancelled. DOFSQ shareholders are entitled to receive a Pro Rata portion of New Warrants (“Warrants”), as described in the Plan. The treatment of fractional warrants is unknown at this time.

Possible Settlement Procedures

An OTC or OTCBB (Bulletin Board) market may develop in the U.S. for the Warrants, although there is no assurance this will happen. OCC anticipates that if an OTC or OTCBB market develops, NSCC will accept transactions in the Warrants which arise as a result of option exercise and assignment activity. In that event, DOFQ1 option exercise and assignment activity will settle in the normal fashion through NSCC. However, if a market does not develop or NSCC does not accept transactions in the Warrants, OCC anticipates requiring broker to broker settlement for DOFQ1 options after the final distributions are determined.

Pursuant to customary OCC broker to broker settlement procedures, inability to effect delivery may subsequently occasion cash settlement as determined by OCC.
