Delivery Settlement and Protect Provisions

Option contracts which are exercised will require the settlement of all component securities included in the contract deliverable at the time of the option contract exercise, including rights, warrants, or similar instruments. Additional entitlements (such as due bills, eligibility to participate in tender offers, elections, etc.) may also automatically attach to securities deliverable upon option exercise. Conversely, securities not included in the contract deliverable at the time of the option exercise not associated with the underlying deliverable securities, may preclude call exercisers from realizing the benefit of such entitlements. (See also "Special Risks - Valuation Disparity".) Except in unusual cases, securities deliverable as a result of equity option exercise are settled through National Securities Clearing Corporation ("NSCC").

Rights and obligations of Members with respect to securities settling at NSCC as a result of an option exercise/assignment are governed by the rules of NSCC. NSCC has its own rules which enable purchasers of securities to protect themselves for value which may be lost if timely delivery is not made to them of securities subject to specific deadlines, such as the expiration of a tender offer, rights subscription, election, or similar event. These rules are generally called "protect" or "liability notice" procedures, and are intended to protect purchasers by binding the delivering parties to liability if such value is lost because timely delivery is not effected. Purchasers of securities must observe the rules and procedures of NSCC to avail themselves of such "protect" provisions of NSCC. Questions regarding these provisions should be addressed to NSCC.

Special Risks

Writers of call options and holders of short positions in physically-settled security futures at maturity who are uncovered with respect to deliverable securities subject to deadlines or cut-off times (such as expirations of tender offers, rights subscriptions, elections, or similar events) should be aware of a risk associated with the timing of their possible assignments or physically-settled security futures delivery obligations: Equity option exercise settlement and settlement of physically-settled security futures delivery obligations normally occurs 2 business days after the option exercise date or the security-futures maturity date. An uncovered call writer or uncovered short futures holder who has an obligation to deliver, and who waits until after assignment or futures maturity to effect purchase of the underlying security, may not be able to effect timely delivery by a regular-way purchase (2 business-day settlement) or call option exercise (2 business-day settlement after exercise). Such uncovered writer or short futures holder may nevertheless be subject to liability under the protect provisions of NSCC (see above) with respect to his delivery obligation, because he cannot make timely delivery. Additionally, Cash Markets (same-day, or less-than-2-business-day settlement) may not be available, or may be expensive for buyers of the underlying security.

Possible Contract Adjustment

The Offer is being made with the intention of acquiring all outstanding of Talend S.A. (TLND) Ordinary Shares (including ADS's representing Ordinary Shares). Following the expiration of the offer, the purchase may decide to commence, an Asset Sale, Liquidation and Second Step Distribution, Mergers, Compulsory Acquisition or Other Post-Offer Reorganization Measures. The payment received through any of these actions may be different from the terms of the offer and may be subject to a Dutch Dividend withholding tax at a rate of 15%. It is not known at this time if such potential taxes will be applicable. Interpretation .03 to Article VI, Section 11A, of OCC's By-Laws indicates a contract adjustment for TLND options would be contemplated when and if the aforementioned intended merger is actually consummated. It is not known how quickly after the expiration of the Offer the intended merger or contract adjustment would be effected. Until such merger is consummated, TLND option activity would continue to call for delivery of the underlying security.

Possible Settlement Procedures

The Offer is being made with the intention of acquiring 100% of Talend S.A. (TLND) Ordinary Shares (including ADS's representing Ordinary Shares) and subsequently effecting a squeeze-out merger under Dutch law. If the squeeze-out occurs, remaining security holders of TLND Ordinary shares may receive a consideration different from the terms of the Offer. It is possible that following the completion of the Offer, a small number of TLND Ordinary Shares may remain in public circulation. Possible exchange delisting may further impair the ability to acquire or sell the remaining securities. If at some time after completion of the offer, OCC determines that a shortage of securities relative to option open interest is likely to cause impairment in the settlement of option exercise activity, OCC may take actions under Article VI, Section 19 of the OCC By-Laws (Shortage of Underlying Securities)
