OCC will produce all customary output on Friday, June 17, 2022 and, pursuant to its By-Laws and Rules, intends to use the closing price from that date (i.e., the trading day immediately preceding the expiration date) for expiration processing. In 2023, expiration processing for such options will occur on Friday, June 16, 2023. OCC will produce all customary output on Friday, June 16, 2023 and, pursuant to its By-Laws and Rules, intends to use the closing price from that date (i.e., the trading day immediately preceding the expiration date) for expiration processing.
