Date: May 29, 2025

Subject: 2025 Business Continuity/Disaster Recovery Industry Test Strategy

Test Overview

Securities Industry and Financial Markets Association (SIFMA) leads, and OCC participates in an annual industry-wide business continuity test to exercise and verify the ability of Options and Futures firms, exchanges and market utilities to operate through an emergency, using backup sites, recovery facilities and backup communication capabilities across the industry. This test is a validation of market connectivity and interactive processing, but is not a full test of internal systems of firms, exchanges, and market utilities.

This industry test allows OCC participants (members and exchanges) to connect to the OCC's DR environment and execute trade and post trade clearing transactions. OCC will be supporting a RegSCI-style test and will not be supporting the classic ping style testing.

Test Day Business Date

OCC will run this year's Industry Test using Saturday, October 25, 2025, as the business date. Any trade or post trade data submitted to OCC should have a business date of 10/25/2025 and any messages with a different business date will be rejected.

Is participation mandatory or optional?

Members mandated for participation in the 2025 test were formally notified in November of 2024. Test participation is required for mandated members. Participation is optional (although highly encouraged) for non-mandated members.

Firms unsure of their mandate status should contact their OCC Clearing Member Representative.

Is Connectivity pre-testing required? If so, what is the connectivity pre-test date?

Yes, connectivity testing is required for the connections that will be leveraged during the actual BC/DR test date. Failure to participate in connectivity pre-testing may result in adverse impacts to a firm's BC/DR test effort.

Connectivity pre-testing date is provided below.
